

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

---

NESTOR CHAVEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

No. CIV 00-307 WJ/KBM-ACE

CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, et al.,

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING
DEFENDANT LEHOCKY'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT IV

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendant Officer Lehocky's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. IV: Dismissal of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment Claim that the Use of a Police Service Dog to Bite a Suspect Constitutes the Use of Deadly Force [Docket No. 71]. In his motion, Officer Lehocky seeks a determination of the Court that the use of a police service dog to bite Plaintiff was not deadly force. Plaintiff's response points out that Plaintiff's Complaint is properly read to state a claim for the use of excessive force; none of the claims is entitled "Use of Deadly Force." Plaintiff further states that "Lehocky's attack on a supposed deadly force claim therefore represents an attack on a phantom." The Court agrees and finds that Officer Lehocky's motion seeks to dismiss a claim that has not been made.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant Lehocky's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment IV [Docket No. 71] is hereby DENIED.
